ALMA MATER

(Tune: Fling Out the Banner, Let It Float)
Lieudocia Simonds Reiney '31

We'll sing thy praises, loud and strong,
For we are proudly of the throng,
That bow in love and loyalty
To thee, our glorious Waverly.

We'll strive to keep thy honor high,
Build up thy fame into the sky;
Thy Red and White, we'll make the sign
Of inspiration, pure and fine.

As willing servants of thy power,
We'll strive to strengthen it each hour,
And with our knowledge newly gained
Uphold thy well earned, noble name.

So hail, all hail our Waverly
We'll ever more be true to thee;
Our ALMA MATER and our Queen,
In everything thou art Supreme.

FOREWORD

We, the Class of 1953, have been known to be eager to experience new and promising ideas throughout our school years here at Waverly High. It is appropriate, therefore, that we have chosen television for our Carantouan theme.

In view of this fact we invite you to sit back and recall with us the memorable occasions which we all shared during our high school days as they were recorded by our TV cameras.

DEDICATION

To Fred Boice:

We, the class of 1953, are proud to dedicate our yearbook to Fred Boice.

Fred, a loyal and valued member of our class, was noted throughout the school for his cooperative spirit and outstanding sportsmanship in the field of athletics. As an example of a typical boy, he will remain as an inspiration to us.

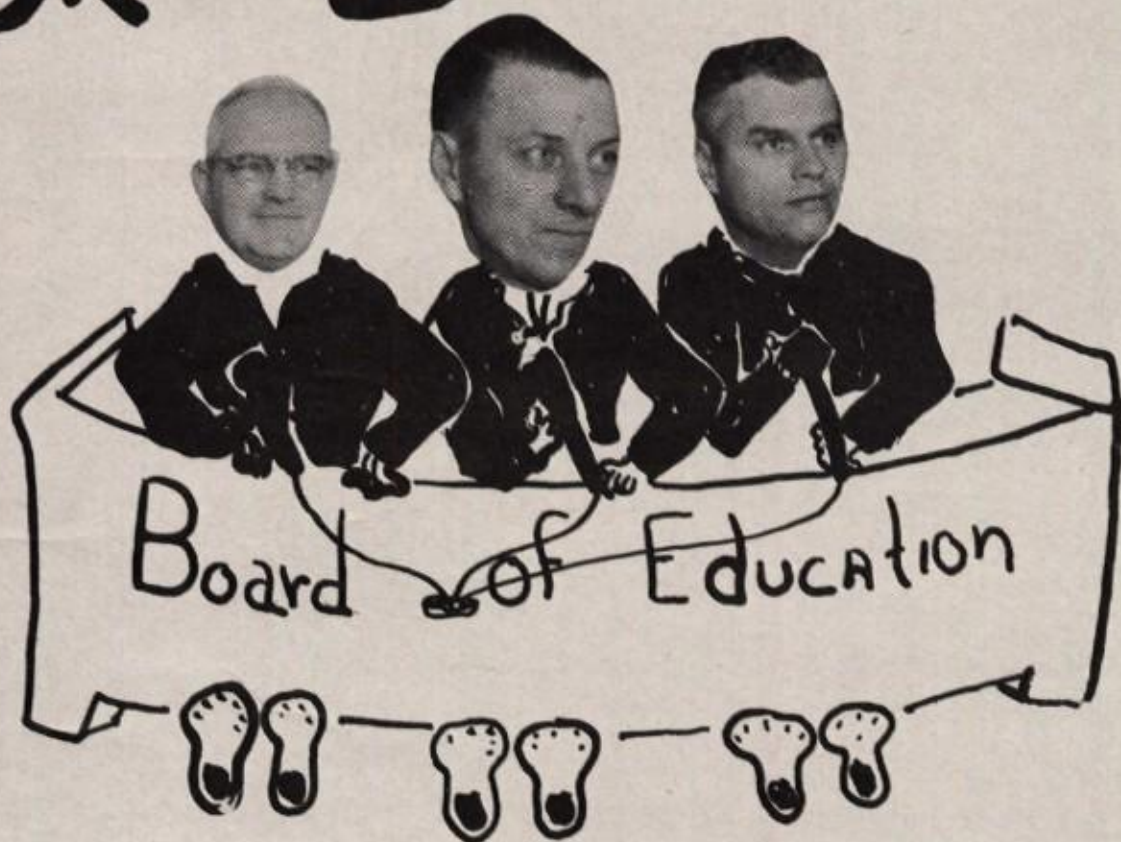

In memory of a classmate and friend, we dedicate our yearbook.

SEARCH FOR TOMORROW

This is the WHS-T.V. station in Waverly, New York. The cameras will spotlight the famous class members of 1953 at their annual homecoming festivities.

Jack Freeman, Secretary of Agriculture, has as his assistant Ronald Becker.

Joe Betcke has just re-designed the Nash - it's revolutionary! Julia Eddy has taken Albert Schweiger's place at the organ. Shirley Clark is President of "Clark Bar" Company. Her able and talented colleagues Marilyn Decatur and Sylvia Corbin have perfected a new type of rubberized chocolate exterior. Frank Brownholtz sells Fuller Brushes to Jo Ann Keene and Kay Molyneaux, who are both settled in white bungalows.

Nancy Parmenter designs school desks for sleeping comfort.

Ruth Garrison's Bubble Gum Factory has expanded. Things are really "popping" down in New Jersey. Leo Cardi, that famous art critic, has much to say about Threasa Gorman's paintings on exhibition in the Metropolitan Museum.

Jim Catlin is a professional Santa Claus for Gimbels. Ray Catlin is an understudy to Charles Boyer. He may soon appear in a play taken from Terry Coot's famous book, "Love Life of a Tuba."

Larry Croft is doing quite well in the tooth pick business.

Perhaps you've seen some of our members on T. V. Dick Draper is wrestling regularly on Saturday night. Mary Benson and Diana (Lady of Spain) Harford is doing a little wrestling too.

Janice Baker owns a restaurant. Althea Barden is the hostess. "Lib" Linger has just completed his thirteenth volume of "Jokes for the Jokers."

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS

The 1952 Wolverines established themselves as one of Waverly's greatest teams by winning two championships while outscoring eight opponents. The all-winning season was climaxed with a 28-7 Homecoming victory over Athens.

In capturing the first Southern Counties League trophy, Waverly steam-rollered over Painted Post, Watkins Glen, Owego, Horseheads, and Elmira Heights.

The Valley Championship was gained in wins over tough Towanda, Sayre, and Athens. The Wolverine offense averaged 35 points per game while holding their opponents to a mere 6 1/2. Features of Waverly's attack were the great play-calling and running of Bill Creedon, Vic Prinzi's passing, and Fred Lincoln's expert place-kicking.

Waverly placed Bill Creedon, Vic Prinzi, Fred Lincoln, John Howard, Joe Betcke, Don Laman and Bob Springer on the All-Valley squad; while Creedon Prinzi, Lincoln, Laman, Betcke, and Howard were All-Southern Counties League choices.

Lost through graduation are such stars as Creedon and Betcke, the co-captains; center, John Howard; tackle, Jack Northrup; both ends, Laman and Springer and fullback Lincoln.

However, prospects for another year are bright, thanks to the coaching of Frank Toomey and his staff.

MILLER SQUARE GARDEN

Congratulations to Coach Ray Miller on turning out another championship team during the 1952-53 basketball season. The Wolverines won their 4th straight Valley Championship and their 5th consecutive Southern Counties League Championship. Waverly ended the 1951-52 season as Section IV Champions of New York State and also had an 18 game winning streak which reached 24 straight before Johnson City took our measure 69-49. This was our only defeat of the season as we beat Johnson City in our second meeting 58-52. The record of 17 wins and 1 loss is the best record ever compiled by a Waverly basketball team.

JUNIOR VARSITY HOUR

Despite the loss of six men to the Varsity, causing a lack of experienced players, the 1952-53 Junior Varsity team scored a total of 952 points to their rivals' 767. After winning games from Sayre (69-21) and Horseheads (53-37), they suffered their first defeat by losing to Union Endicott with a score of 77-38. The next teams to be crushed by Waverly J. V. enthusiasm and teamwork were Athens (54-19) and Towanda (65-20). After being stopped by Johnson City (53-38), the Junior Millermen came through again by beating Elmira Heights (52-38). The Junior Varsity then suffered its third defeat, this time at the hands of Owego by a score of (44-39) after a very exciting and close game. On the comeback trail, Waverly defeated Sayre (54-24), Towanda (56-26), and Watkins Glen (74-51). Undaunted by a 58-45 defeat by Endicott, the Juniors won from Horseheads by a score of 58-41. To avenge an earlier loss, Waverly beat Johnson City in an unusually good game by a score of 44-43. After winning a second game from Elmira Heights (60-48), the J. V.'s again felt the sting of defeat, this time at the hands of Athens with a final score of 57-47. Winning from Watkins Glen (52-32), the Junior Millermen still had one decisive game to play--Owego, a game needed to tie for the Southern Counties League J. V. Championship and in true "Waverly-style" their hometown Juniors took that game 62-57. This meant a playoff between Owego and Waverly at the Van Etten High School gym. A real thriller, the game showed a see-saw score for the first three periods. In the fourth quarter, however, Owego pulled ahead, winning the game 48-47. With an over-all record of 14 wins against only 5 losses, the 1952-53 Junior Varsity team was a credit to Waverly High and showed promise of even greater things to come.

THE NAME'S THE SAME

Our officers are, President, William Creedon; Vice President, John Howard; Secretary-Treasurer, Victor Prinzi; Advisor, Mr. Miller.

The Lettermen's Club is composed of forty-two members, all of whom have received one or more letters in the four varsity sports.

Initiation of new members was held November 17-19. Each initiate had his face painted with lipstick and had to obey all orders given by the members. Those not obeying orders were given demerits appropriate for the crime. The hazing was concluded in a assembly Wednesday morning November 19. The initiates were made to perform their hideous assignments before the student body.

In June 1952, the Lettermen's Club presented the school with a starting gun to be used in all outdoor athletic contests. The Club also had a very successful picnic with loads of food at Ithaca's Stewart Park. Another picnic is scheduled for this spring.

During the Football and Basketball seasons the Club sponsored numerous dances after the athletic contests. The highlight of the year was seeing the Cornell Varsity Basketball team play at Ithaca.

NEWS SYNDICATE

The Editor's Club, advised by Mrs. Knapp, has its largest membership this year.

The club was late to organize and, therefore, initiation of the new members was combined with their annual Christmas party.

The main activity of the members is to write the school's weekly news for the school column in the Waverly Sun and Valley News. The articles are written up, checked by Mrs. Knapp, and then typed by the official typist, Shirley Tichenor.

At an early meeting officers were elected as follows: President, Joanne Grinnell; Vice President, Rita Cushing; Secretary, Anne Shallenberger; Treasurer, Gary Chilson; and Student Council Representative, Sybil Lyon.

Plans for more parties and projects are constantly in the making.

FOREIGN INTRIGUE

The Latin Club, under the leadership of Miss Corby, has had a very active year.

The first undertaking was the initiation of the fourteen sophomores who wished to join the club. The initiation, held early in October, featured a Roman supper. Everyone who attended was dressed in a toga. Following the supper, the new members presented a program consisting of skits and songs as part of their initiation.

The club's activities really got underway following the initiation. The first project to be taken up was that of sending books to the children in the valley hospitals. This project, which took place around Christmas time, was carried out successfully.

The second large project was preparing for the annual outing at Eagle's Mere and World's End Park held in June. Bake sales, supper, and other such projects were held throughout the winter to raise the money necessary for this undertaking.

LITTLE THEATRE

The Junior class gave its annual fund-raising plays this year on December 20. Under the direction of Mr. Baylor, students assisted in selecting the plays and were organized into various committees to handle the technical points necessary for a successful production.

One of the plays included in the program was "The Happy Journey", a story about a family of everyday people. The cast included:

Ma.	Sandra Ayres	Stage Manager. . .	Don Welsey
Pa.	Robert Payne	Arthur	William Bucholtz
Beulah	Phyllis Wright	Caroline. . . .	Rosemary Dimon

The second play was a suspense story, "Trifles". This unusual, interest-holding plot centered around a murder and the trifling things which led to the incrimination of the little old housewife. The cast included:

Attorney. . . .	Edward Weinstein
Mr. Hale. . . .	Stuart Schwartz
Sheriff	Daniel Wasserstrom
Mrs. Peters . . .	Marilyn Mellon

The Student Council is a body of pupils comprised of representatives of the student body. The school principal is the advisor of the council. At their weekly meetings, the group discusses problems and business of the student body. The council always makes a good attempt to solve the problems which face the students.

At council meetings, members may suggest how to solve these problems and also bring up what business they might have in mind. Our Student Council is a member of the National organization of Student Councils and because of this, they can bring into our school, new and better ways of governing.

This years council consists of 9 elected members. The Senior Class elects 3, the Junior Class 2, and the Sophomores have 1. The three class presidents automatically become members.

In addition to these, there is a representative from every home room and from every school club and organization.

The Home Economics Club has succeeded in becoming one of the most active organizations in the school.

Under the leadership of Kathleen Molyneaux several money-making projects were held. The proceeds were used to buy Christmas gifts for orphaned children.

During Farm and Home week club members made their annual trip to Cornell University to observe the college's homemaking activities. The annual Spring Banquet climaxed a very enjoyable year.

The officers this year were Kathleen Molyneaux, President; Marilyn Decatur, Vice-President; Eleanor Merrill, Secretary; and Margaret Merrill, Treasurer. The Student Council Representative was Jo Ann Keene.

Miss Marshall is the advisor.

FOREIGN INTRIGUE

The French Club, which is one of the largest organizations in the school, carried out a number of successful projects this year. At the first meeting officers were elected. They were as follow: Robert Griffin, President; Barbara Bartlett, Vice-President; James Manning, Secretary; and Charles Dunfee, Treasurer.

The admission of new members was marked by an initiation, which was held at Patricia Simon's house in Sayre, Pa. As part of the initiation the members were required to go on a scavenger hunt in which items to be found were written in French. Later refreshments were served.

During the course of the year, several bake sales were held in order to raise the necessary funds for the annual trip to New York City.

One of the most important and active clubs in the school is the Library Club. Its functions benefit the whole school, and help make the library an efficient and helpful place for all students.

With a membership of twenty-five, much work is done at the meetings and outside in regard to mending books, getting them ready for circulation, and, in general, helping others get full enjoyment and knowledge from reading. Each member must work one period a week stamping books, putting them away, and doing all the things a librarian would ordinarily do.

Projects included bake sales for raising money, and visits to surrounding school libraries to see how other clubs function, and also to get acquainted with the different members. An all-year-round project is the care of the bulletin board. Each student in this organization is requested to help make it attractive, and a source of enjoyment and interest for the student body.

Officers for the year were: President, Shirley Clark; Vice-President, Martha Decatur; Secretary, Shirley Robbins; Treasurer, Donna Richards; Student Council Representative, Jo Ann Root. With the help and guidance of their advisor, Mrs. Gordon Reed, this club had a very successful year.

NEWS SYNDICATE

The Column Club, which meets each Tuesday, 8th period, compiles and edits the school news for the "Evening Times". Each week the task of selecting and writing the news is up to the club members, for it is through this column that the public is kept in touch with many school activities which do not find their way into the headlines. At the meetings, articles of interest are discussed, decided on for publication and then assigned. These articles must be handed into Miss Marsh, the faculty advisor, to be checked for grammatical errors and are then sent to be typed, ready for the press.

This is the ninth year that the Club has been functioning and this year it has one of its largest staffs—twenty-four members. Officers were elected early in the year as follows: President, Mary Jo Armstrong; Vice President, Robert Payne; Secretary, Rosemary Dimon; and Treasurer, Pat Greenfield.

At the beginning of the year the Column Club initiation was held at the home of Mary Armstrong. Upon arriving, the initiates were sent into the house to watch television until it was their turn to go through their paces. The garage was the center of attraction during the evening, for it was here that the new members were initiated. After each initiate performed, he was required to assist with another new member until all sixteen had joined the ranks of the club. Refreshments were served.

During the early spring, the students of the three valley towns took over the publishing of the "Times" with the aid of the regular reporters. This has been an annual project which our club has enjoyed for several years. It has proved to be a profitable and a enlightening experience for all participants.

The Future Farmers of America are a group of boys combined to devote their efforts to the fulfillment of their club name. This organization meets one Monday night in the school under the supervision of Mr. Tuthill, its advisor.

The slate of officers consists of: Jack Freeman, President; Richard Maslin, Vice President; Donald Backer, Secretary; and Jerry Lines, Treasurer.

The main purpose of the organization is to study farming and its improvements, but conservation has also become one of their major concerns.

In addition to their regular studies and club projects, the majority of the boys have their own private projects such as raising animals and crops.

The many trips to conventions aid in furthering their knowledge of farming by offering interesting and helpful exhibits and lectures.

WHAT'S MY LINE

One of the newest organizations in the school this year is the Future Secretarial Personnel Workers. Under the direction of Mr. Behnk, Guidance Instructor, the club meets once a month for the purpose of learning details pertaining to secretarial duties. As part of their duties, the members are expected to assist in the Guidance Office with such things as clerical work, arranging the college catalogue and occupational files, and filing correspondence.

At the monthly meetings, movies are shown and instructions given to further the understanding of secretarial work. Tentative plans for this year included at least one field trip to a business school such as the Rochester Business Institute.
